PRESS RELEASE: "A Blank Canvas to carry your Creativity"

Daily Window Products, Inc., Joseph, Oregon is introducing it's newly patented scrap booking and art display bags for crafters to display and share their art --while On the Go. Crafters, photographers, and artists from any venue can create images sized to fit into the Daily window Art Bags, and embellish the exteriors to match their mood and creations. These versatile bags carry images sized to fit into beautifully sewn, transparent art pockets to be changed out whenever the mood strikes. For the first time, art and inspirational images can be carried and shared in a functional and versatile way.

Founder, Paula kriegler, states that "my intent in producing this product line is to enable people to share and learn ideas and inspirational themes by leveraging their time while on the go". By producing quality personal accessories with transparent pockets crafters, artists, photographers, kids, and anyone who seeks to share their creativity, can express themselves in a new and fun way. The Daily Window websites at: www.dailywindow.com and www.dailywindow.net feature a variety of ways to use the bags including Kid's interactive learning projects, mixed media crafting embellishments, scrap booking layouts that show how scrappers can combine "portable art' with "album art", photography and memories , designer's galleries, and a "customize and print your own cards" site complete with verses, sayings and famous quotes.
